Eight people went away happy from the Trades Day exercises Wednesday. They were the lucky winners of the Trades Day awards given by Hondo merchants to their customers.

Anton Hardt was awarded the first premium of $10.00; C. M. Merritt, second $7.50; Monica Moncado, third, $5.00; Ernest Schreiber, fourth; Mrs. P. C. Jagge, fifth; Mrs. O. B. Taylor, sixth; Mrs. E. A. Balzen, seventh; and F. H. Bohlen, eighth.

Despite the intense cold, the usual large and attentive crowd was present for the awarding of the premiums, and knowing the people would suffer from the cold at the usual gathering place, with a foresight and consideration for us thin blooded folks that is commendable in a fat man who doesn't mind the cold, Master of Ceremonies Saathoff called the crowd together in front of the Window Drug Store, on South Front Street where, shielded from the winds by the block of buildings on the north side, the people spent a couple of hours in comparative comfort and in the best of good humor.

Preceding Mr. Saathoff's awarding of the premiums, two political speeches were delivered by candidates for the Democratic nomination for Congress from the 15th District, and following the awards two other speeches were delivered. The crowd accorded the speakers a remarkably attentive hearing for such an occasion and showed that they are interested in the issues involved in this campaign.

The next Trades Day will be held on the second Wednesday in March. Ask your merchant for tickets and be on hand again next time.

Make Hondo your trade center and we will all prosper.

Election Proclamation

PROCLAMATION OF THE DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE FOR THE FIFTEENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT OF TEXAS.

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come—Greeting:

WHEREAS, the Governor of the State of Texas has ordered that a special election be held on the 22nd day of April, A. D. 1933, in the several counties of the Fifteenth Congressional District of Texas to elect a representative from said district to the House of Representatives of the Seventy-third Congress of the United States of America, to succeed Hon. John N. Garner, resigned, and

WHEREAS, it is the judgment of this committee that it is desirable that the Democratic party nominate a candidate for the office to be filled at said special election.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested by law in this the District Executive Committee of the Democratic Party for the Fifteenth Congressional District of Texas, it is hereby ordered:

1. That a special primary election of the Democratic party be held in the manner prescribed by law on the 25th day of February, A. D. 1933, in each election precinct in the counties of Cameron, Willacy, Kleberg, Jim Wells, Brooks, Hidalgo, Starr, Jim Hogg, Zapata, Webb, Duval, Live Oak, McMullen, La Salle, Dimmit, Maverick, Zavala, Frio, Atascosa, Medina, Uvalde, Kinney and Kenedy, which said counties compose the Fifteenth Congressional District of Texas, for the purpose of nominating a candidate of said party for representative to the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States to participate as candidate in the special election ordered by the Governor to be held on the 22nd day of April.

2. In the event no person receives a majority of the votes cast for all candidates for the nomination for the office at the primary election hereby ordered to be held on February 25, there shall be held on the 15th day of March, A. D. 1933, a second primary election in each of the several election precincts of the above named counties, but at said second primary election, only the two persons receiving the highest number of votes at the first primary election shall be voted upon.

3. Any person desiring to have his name appear on the official ballot of the primary election, hereby ordered as candidate for nomination for representative to the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States shall file with D. W. Price, Chairman, Democratic Executive Committee for the Fifteenth Congressional District of Texas, at Uvalde, Texas, on or before February 10, 1933, at midnight, a request in writing, such request shall be signed and duly acknowledged by the person desiring such nomination, or signed and acknowledged by twenty-five qualified voters of the district, that his name be printed on said ballot as candidate for the nomination for said office, to be accompanied by a cashier's or certified check for the sum of $23.00, made payable to D. W. Price, Chairman. The form of request shall conform to that prescribed for general primaries by Article 3111, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925. In like manner twenty-five voters may by request in writing, file on or before February 10, 1933, by midnight, have the name of any person printed on the official ballot.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially this 2nd day of February, A. D. 1933.

D. W. PRICE,

Chairman, Democratic Executive Committee for the Fifteenth Congressional District of Texas.

The above proclamation is self-explanatory.

In addition to the above order, the Committee also passed the following:

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Be it resolved as follows: That we, the Democratic Executive Committee of the Fifteenth Congressional District, in meeting assembled at Uvalde, Texas, on this, the second day of February;

That whereas, it will require large expenditures for the purpose of conducting a Democratic Primary to select a nominee for the office of Congressman at an election which has been called by the Governor of Texas for the 22nd of April, 1933; and, whereas, no funds are available for this committee to defray such expenses, now, therefore, we respectfully resolve and request that the Democratic Executive Committee of each of the twenty-three counties composing the Fifteenth Congressional District arrange to defray such expenses at the first, and possibly a second primary election, by public subscription, also their proportionate part of the district headquarters expense.

INSTRUCTIONS.

It was moved, seconded, and carried that the Committee Chairman in each of the twenty-three counties make returns of the last primary election in triplicate, one copy to be retained by the Chairman, one copy to be forwarded to Secretary of State of the State of Texas, and one copy to D. W. Price, Chairman of the Fifteenth Congressional District, at Uvalde, said certificate to be forwarded not later than three days following the last primary.

The Attorney General instructs that each County Chairman be requested to post a copy of the proclamation ordering the special primaries, in a public place in each election precinct in each county of the 15th Congressional District, immediately; also that the Chairman request that all newspapers published in the county in which he resides print this notice.

(If the precinct chairman has not received a copy of the proclamation for posting or has failed to post the same, see that the above notice is clipped and posted at once.—County Chairman)

The above is likewise self-explanatory. If we, the people of Medina County, are to have a voice in the selection of a Democratic nominee for Congress in the 15th District, the cost of tickets, blanks, etc., must be provided for by private subscription. If able or willing to help in this, hand or send your contribution to Judge H. E. Haass, Secretary of the County Executive Committee, Hondo, Texas. If the election is held in the various precincts it must be done by volunteers in each precinct. Precinct Chairmen will please take notice of these matters and make all necessary arrangements for enabling the voters to have an opportunity to express their choice as between the various candidates.

Let every qualified Democratic elector arrange to attend the polls on Feb. 25th and show his interest by casting his vote.

Since the above was put into type we have received a letter from which we quote as follows:

Office of D. W. Price, Chairman, Democratic Executive Committee, Fifteenth Congressional District, Uvalde, Texas, February 7, 1933.

Hon. Fletcher Davis, Chairman, Democratic Executive Committee, Medina County, Hondo, Texas.

Dear Committee:

In our Executive Committee meeting on Thursday, February 2nd, we had a copy of the new election law, and opinion and instructions in full from the Attorney General's Office. I will quote a paragraph of that opinion as the reason for the committee's action in collecting only $1.00 per county from each candidate offering for the nomination for Congressman of the 15th Congressional District of Texas. The committee voted unanimously on this plan, as there was some question as to whether or not we had the authority to assess candidates more.

The following is a paragraph from the Attorney General's letter: "In one of my former letters to you, I expressed as my opinion which is not necessarily the opinion of this department, that your committee would probably not be limited to the collection of $1.00 per county from each candidate for the nomination, in raising funds to hold the special primaries. There is a great deal of doubt whether this construction would be followed and it has raised a great deal of opposition. The better policy to pursue in order to avoid the toils of litigation would be to follow the letter of the statute and collect from each candidate an assessment of not more than $1.00 for each county in the district. I must refrain however from advising you as to how funds may be raised for holding the primaries. I can only say that I hope you will be more successful in raising funds than I am."

Our Committee followed the law as they understood it, and we believe that we have followed the safest course. Our State Chairman, Maury Hughes, had advised us that three counties had offered to finance their own expenses without donations, and Uvalde County joins this plan. We ask that all other counties in the district join in on the committee's plan in order that we may have one hundred per cent primary elections in the district. Since the precinct chairmen and other interested citizens in most of the territory have agreed to give their time without cost to the holding of the primary elections, we believe that it would be nothing but right for a number of our citizens in each of the twenty-three counties to contribute a sufficient amount to pay for election supplies and ballots.

Yours very truly,

D. W. PRICE, Chairman, Democratic Executive Committee, Fifteenth Congressional District.

According to figures in the hands of Mr. Price the supplies and ballots would cost about $46.00 for Medina County.

Candidates for Congress 15th District Speak

HON. GORDON GRIFFIN.
HON. GORDON GRIFFIN SPEAKS.

Speaking in three Medina County towns Tuesday, Gordon Griffin appeared in a street meeting in Hondo, where he told the largest crowd that had up to that time listened to a campaign speech during this campaign that he is one of the two men who will go into the run-off primary in the congressional election to be held in this district to elect a man to succeed John Nance Garner, Vice-President-elect.

Telling the crowd he favored new banking laws, making a sentence of life imprisonment for a bank official to cause the failure of his bank from inside manipulations, and to tax hoarded money which was not in use, and to raise the tax on that money until it was put into circulation, Griffin said he would put his entire effort in trying to save this country from the ravages of communism, which will be impossible unless a change in conditions is effected immediately.

Griffin is making a tour of the northern portion of the district, and expects to be in this part of the country for several days, he said. He left Hondo to speak in Sabinal and D'Hanis Tuesday afternoon. From there he went westward and will make a complete circuit of the district.

Another point he made was his favor of a law requiring manufacturers in this country to use at least 80 per cent home produced materials.

Mr. Griffin was accorded a close hearing as he talked for an hour or more through a loud speaker and made some friends for his cause among his auditors.

COL. CHARLES TIPS SPEAKS.

Pursuant to the announcement of last week, Col. Charles R. Tips of Three Rivers, Live Oak County, spoke at the county courthouse Monday night. Owing to the inclement weather, the crowd was small and no country people could attend.

Those who braved the weather, however, were treated to a statesmanly discussion of the public questions of the day by a man who has been a careful student and who has a comprehensive grasp of their problems, and who convinced his hearers of his earnestness and sincerity of purpose.

He promised his hearers if sent to Congress to bring to their service a fighting spirit, untrammelled by any factionalism, and guided solely by his understanding of the principles of Democracy and in harmony with the policies as outlined in the platform upon which Roosevelt and the man whom he would succeed, John N. Garner, were elected President and Vice-President.

Mr. Tips was accompanied by his neighbor, Mr. M. A. Radford, manager of the Grant Lumber Co., at Three Rivers, who introduced him and spoke briefly of the high regard in which Mr. Tips is held by his neighbors as a man, as a tireless worker and a fearless fighter for any cause which he espouses.

HON. NOBLE G. COFER.
TRADES DAY SPEAKING.

Preceding the awarding of premiums at the Trades Day gathering Wednesday the people were treated to two speeches by two of the rival candidates for the Democratic nomination for Congressman from the 15th Congressional district.

The first address was by Hon. Noble G. Cofer, an attorney from Brownsville. Mr. Cofer got up from a sick bed to make the address, and spoke briefly. He outlined his platform and asked for a careful and fair reading of it in order that his position on various issues involved in the campaign be clearly understood. He charged the present banking system, as operated under the Federal Reserve act, has failed and must be changed. He favors ending the depression by an immediate inflation of the country's money supply to at least $10.00 per capita, and pledged his best efforts to bring about such relief in such manner.

Hon. Milton West, another Brownsville attorney and at present Representative in the legislature from Cameron County, spoke still more briefly. He said he did not come to the people with any ready made plan to end the depression or cure their other ills, but asked them to send him to Congress on the pledge that he would bring to their service his best efforts of mind and heart in an effort with Democratic leaders in Washington to work out a solution of all problems affecting the people along Democratic principles as expressed in the party's platform with which he is in hearty accord.

Following the awarding of the premiums, Hon. Charles R. Tips spoke at some length along the lines of his speech of Monday night, mention of which appears elsewhere. He enlarged upon some points, and took sharp issue with Mr. Cofer on the wisdom of the Federal Reserve act, defending it as a Democratic measure.

Following Mr. Tips, Judge Hunt of Crystal City spoke about a minute, saying "you have heard two lawyers and the son of a banker tell what to do for the country's main dependence—the farmer—now wait until the farmer himself speaks in the person of F. W. Pulliam of Crystal City." He promised the crowd they would have a chance to hear him in person before the campaign is over.

The crowd, while not demonstrative, manifested interest in all the speeches and will welcome these gentlemen back on any other occasion which may suit their convenience.

WOULDN'T TAKE $1,000 FOR WHAT SARGON DID

Celebrated New Medicine Ends Troubles for Retired Farmer. Gains 20 Pounds.

"I wouldn't take $1,000 for what this new Sargon medicine did for me," declared John F. Kessel, retired farmer, 447 N. Alabama St., Indianapolis. "When I started taking it I had such rheumatic pains in my shoulders, arms and legs I could hardly dress myself or step up a step. I had lost about thirty pounds in weight and felt like I was losing all the strength and vitality I had.

"Sargon and Sargon Pills took hold and started driving the poisons out of my system almost from the first dose and by the time I'd finished three bottles, every pain I had was gone! I've gained back twenty pounds and feel like a new man. For troubles like I had, Sargon just can't be beat."

The amazing success achieved by Sargon is not only phenomenal, but unprecedented. So startling have been the results obtained from this new scientific formula, physicians, chemists and public health authorities have been astounded and gratified at its remarkable health and strength-building powers.

BAPTIST NEWS NOTES.

The increase in attendance of the Bible School on last Sunday, above the preceding Sunday, was large, but, of course, might have been much larger if all had done their best to come. The motives for attending Bible study on Sunday mornings are first, to worship the Holy God Who gave us the Book, and then to increase our knowledge of the same, that our happiness and usefulness might be realized. Our Superintendent is deer!—in earnest in his work, and we should all appreciate his leadership in this most useful of all study. If many could throw off their Saturday night sins, and then in the love and fear of our heavenly Father, take up the blessed work He gave us to do, the house of worship would fill up early. Your preachers are doing their best. Why not give them your co-operation? A most wonderful story told by Jesus himself, forms the basis for our study on next Sunday. It is called the Parable of the Sower. Come and hear it. Suitable classes and a hearty welcome await you.

Practical Unity, Guided by the Spirit of God, will be presented by the Pastor at the 11 o'clock hour. There will be a message in it for everyone. Here is a little poem by the late Henry Van Dyke which expresses our situation.

BOATS ARE SMALL.

O maker of the mighty deep, Whereon our vessels fare, Above our life's adventure keep Thy faithful watch and care. In Thee we trust, what'er befall; Thy sea is great, our boats are small.

We know not where the secret tides Will help us or delay, Nor where the lurking tempest hides, Nor where the fogs are grey. We trust in Thee, what'er befall; Thy sea is great, our boats are small.

When outward bound we boldly sail And leave the friendly shore, Let not our hearts of courage fail Until the voyage is o'er. We trust in Thee, what'er befall; Thy sea is great, our boats are small.

When homeward bound we gladly turn, Oh! bring us safely there, Where harbor lights of friendship burn And peace is in the air. We trust in Thee, what'er befall; Thy sea is great, our boats are small.

Beyond the circle of the sea, When voyaging is past, We seek our final port in Thee; Oh! bring us home at last. In Thee we trust, what'er befall; Thy sea is great, our boats are small.

Let us all meet now, at church.

The Pastor.

QUIHI NOTES.

Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit. St. Luke 23: 46. Darkness on Calvary, sunshine in the heart of the dying Savior, mortification in the house of the would-be victors; peace with the real conqueror; bloodshot pyramids wallowing in the morass of villainy, He, the Sovereign, at the zenith of His earthly course. The Father at His side—all else matters little, be it glory or seeming infamy, be it life or be it death. Living for the Father, His sole aim, and now dying for the Father, obedient unto death—death has no terror. Thus He mapped out our course, plainly and triumphantly.

The Ladies' Aid met in bi-monthly session on February 2nd, at the parish hall. Twenty-seven members and five visitors were present. Four new members were added to the roster, viz., Mesdames Emil Saathoff, John Balzen, Edgar Balzen and Rosa Boehle. They received a joyous welcome. The secretary's report was accepted, as was the favorable report of the auditing committee, Mesdames F. Boehle and Dave Burnett. Various other committees—on Christmas donations and sick visitations—were heard. The sum of ten dollars was turned over for foreign mission work. A brief memorial devotion was held in honor of two departed members, Mrs. C. P. Hasskard and Mrs. M. Rohlf. A memorial wreath was voted upon, to perpetuate the memory. A vivid account of Christmas celebrations among the Heroes in Africa was read, with various hymns interspersed. The next entertainment committee was then announced by the Secretary: Mrs. J. Oeffinger, Mrs. Harri Gerdes and Mrs. Alb. Mummie. The business session was followed by a splendid luncheon, prepared and served by Mesdames L. Boehle, F. Boehle and A. Boehle. A vote of thanks is due them.

The Sunday School teachers will meet Friday, February 10th, at 7 P. M. Grading, promotion re-classification and discussion of lessons, are up for consideration. Concentrated and systematic work will ease the effort and facilitate results. It's worth while.

Announcements for Sunday, February 12th:

English service at Quihi, 10:30 A. M. Sunday School and Bible Class at 9:30 A. M. German service at New Fountain, 2 P. M. Induction of the new vestryman (postponement). Luther League program at 7:15 P. M. A sincere welcome awaits you. The Pastor.

NEW FOUNTAIN W. M. S.

The New Fountain Women's Missionary Society had an enjoyable meeting at the home of Mrs. Geo. Wiemers Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. E. W. Dechert was leader of the following program. Opening hymn, "Blest be the Tie that Binds". Silent Prayers by members. Mrs. Dechert read the Scripture lesson, Philippians 3: 7-14. She also led the Missionary topic, "Life at Scarritt College". Mrs. J. E. Muennink gave "The Story of Scarritt". Mrs. T. J. Wiemers read "Scarritt's Contribution to the Church".

The business session followed during which the members decided to make some patchwork quilts which they intend to sell and use the funds for a missionary cause.

Old fashioned and homely pleasures are once more coming into their own, they prove to be a pleasant pastime, and the result of their efforts is converted into a worthy cause.

At the conclusion of the meeting the hostess served a delicious refreshment course to twelve members and four guests.

DON'T SUFFER ANOTHER DAY

Sufferers from rheumatism need more than the mere temporary relief that comes from the use of pain relievers. The system must be freed from the poisons of this agonizing disease.

When your throbbing, swollen joints begin to subside, when aching nerves and muscles begin to relax, when poisons begin to dissolve and drain from the system, you will know beyond a doubt that the RU-NO-MA prescription is removing the cause of your trouble. COUNTY HEALTH ACTIVITIES
FOR THE MONTH OF JANUARY.

Since January 1st we have had at us, Frances Mayfield, State Health Nurse borrowed from the Health Department. This service gives to the County a program of Health Education.
It was impossible to reach everyone in the County, due to lack of money, nevertheless, a large number were reached, either for individual inspection of the child or to the parents and teachers and demonstrate health programs in schools.
About one half of the nurse's time during her stay in the County was spent in organization, visiting Parent-Teachers Associations, and assisting in arranging for an all-year Health Program to be carried out after the itinerant service has been withdrawn by the State.
In each school visited by the nurse, after health inspection of the children or to assist parents and teachers in health programs, County Nurse personal assistance and support to the work. And it was made possible through his efforts to visit the schools than the itinerant service usually reaches. The service is open to both Independent and Common School Districts and Parochial schools. Supt. Turner of Devine and Supt. Barry of Hondo gave heart cooperation not only to their own district but manifested an interest in the work throughout the county.
We would like to encourage the organization of Parent-Teachers Associations in your local communities.
Not only through these clubs that effective child welfare work can be done. In every instance we have had the loyal support of these associations. We also found the teachers giving a great amount of time to health instruction.
An Immunization Campaign will be put on, perhaps in April; every child in Medina County, between the ages of six and twelve, will be given chance to be immunized against the dreaded disease, diphtheria. This will be put on through the cooperation of the County Medical Society,
the County Educational Department and the County Health Committee.
A Mouth Hygiene Campaign is a part of the State Dental Society put on in each County by local Dental Societies. Our local Dentists have given much consideration to this move, have given generously of their time and cooperated in every possible way. Dr. T. B. Knopp is County

Chairman of this campaign.

A County Health Committee has been organized. The names of the committee members will be announced later when the organization has been completed.

The following is a report of the Itinerant Nurse:

Individual inspection of fourteen hundred sixty children; mouth examinations by dentist of eighteen hundred twenty-six children.

Visits to Parent-Teachers Associations—Eight; home visits—twenty-five.

Attended the County Council at Devine.

The Medina County Council has the distinction of being the first Council visited by the newly appointed State Health Officer, Dr. John Brown. Dr. Barnett, Director of Bureau of Child Hygiene, also visited the Council and gave an interesting talk on school health program, stressing immunization, especially of the pre-school age. We are glad to say his word fell on good soil, and suggested offers accepted by the Council.

The summer round-up of preschool children county wide will be put on by the Council, and the Health Committee is planning a more intensive Health Program than ever before.

PUBLICITY CHAIRMAN,
County Health Committee.

BRIDGE PARTY.

The approach of the Valentine season was seen in the attractive theme at the afternoon bridge party, given last week-end by Mrs. R. J.
Reilly at her home, where she was hostess to her bridge club and a few other friends. Scores and tallies featured raily colored valentines.
After a number of exciting games,
a large heart shaped box of candy was given to the lady who made game
the most times with a heart bid. Mrs.
Oscar Miller received the trophy.
Mrs. Reilly served a delicious plat-lunch in a pink and white color

Co-operation

The merchant puts a price on his goods,
The huckster does, the same with his foods,
The doctor says what his bill will be,
And the lawyer names the price of his fee.
No wonder it's hard for the farmer to live;
He sets no price, just takes what they give.
And then in turn, when he wants to buy,
He gives what they ask, he it low or high.
The Hondo State Bank is strong in the belief:
Co-operation is the farmer's relief.

ZANE GREY NOVEL MADE INTO MOVIE.

Randolph Scott, Sally Blane and J.
Farrell MacDonald head the cast appearing in the movie version of Zane Grey's action romance of the west,
"Heritage of the Desert," which opens at the Colonial Theatre Friday night and runs over Saturday night.

The picture, filmed in remote sections of Utah and Arizona, the setting used by Grey in his novel, follows the Grey story closely.

Scott is cast as a young surveyor, who is called to MacDonald's ranch to check its boundaries. Arriving there, he finds Miss Blane, daughter of MacDonald's dead partner, and MacDonald's worthless son planning marriage. The girl and he are soon in love, however, and on the day of the wedding, she flees from the ranch.

It is at this time that the band of cattle rustlers headed by David Landan, who wants MacDonald's land for himself, choose to attack the ranch. En route, however, they stumble across MacDonald's son, who is in debt to Landan, and kill him.
They take the girl captive.

MacDonald, broken-hearted but infuriated and Scott lead the ranchmen on the mission of revenge and rescue.
They are successful in both, and Mac-Donald gives Scott and Miss Blane his blessing as they tell him of their plans for happiness.

ante in "The Phantom President".

The high school pupils of St. Anthony's School gave a benefit card party at the Parish Hall Saturday evening, Feb. 4. Attractive prizes were awarded for high scores in the various games as follows: for high five to Mrs. A. J. Finger and Howard Rothe; for bridge to Miss Grace Zinsmeyer and Amos Finger; for rook to Miss Sara Koch and Hilmar J. Koch; for bunco to Rosemary Albrecht and Joseph Koch. The drawings for entrance prizes resulted in the following winners: Jacob Weyand, David Albrecht, and Edward Finger. The proceeds realized from this affair will be used in the purchase of athletic equipment for the school.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

One of the loveliest hospitalities of the season was the surprise birthday party given by Mrs. Jack H. Rice on Tuesday evening, honoring Miss Cornelia Koch, at Hotel D'Hanis. The valentine motif in red and white prevailed in the decorations and accessories. Under the archway before the fireplace of the large dining room was a T-shaped table with covers laid for 24 guests. Above its center hung a red heart cushion, with the name of the honoree in white. From this, streamers of red and white crepe paper extended to the corners of the table where they were caught with bows and continued in loops around its base. The beautiful large birthday cake was iced in white, and on its center the red heart was surrounded by birthday candles.

Upon arriving the guests were given valentine headbands to be worn throughout the evening. They were then directed to write their names on red heart tallies; these had been strung in pairs to guide players to their partners for the game of "Hearts", which was the amusement feature. Miss Marcella Ney and Mr. Herman Fohn received prizes for high tally in the games, while the honoree was also remembered with a gift.

At the conclusion of the games, the hostess assigned places about the refreshment table, and presided over cutting the cake. Assisted by Misses Bertha Sauter and Grace Zinsmeyer, she served delicious strawberry jello and red heart-shaped wafers.

Those present were: Misses Irene Poerner, Sarah Rothe, Lena Reinhart, Grace Zinsmeyer, Josie Rothe, Marcella Ney, Ethel Rothe, Lorine Zinsmeyer, Bernice Carle, Lucy Rothe, Dorothy Zerr, Bertha Sauter, the honoree, Miss Cornelia Koch, Messrs. Charles Langfeld, Herman Fohn, John Henry Meyer, Henry Vogel, Hilmar J. Koch, Joe Finger, Wilfred Fohn, James Finger, George Koch, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Rice.

SECO COMMUNITY P. T. A.

The Seco Community P. T. A. held its regular meeting at the school last Friday night, Feb. 3. The business meeting was preceded by a very comic and enjoyable program planned and staged by the boys of the community. Special features of the program were songs rendered by Randolph Rudinger and Raymond Weyand, and a group of "orchestral" numbers presented by the entire group with Louis Lutz as director.

A short negro playlet was followed by a two act farce, "The Happy Cow-boys" with the following characters: Jake Hambone—Randolph Rudinger, Tom Mix—Louis Lutz, Joe Brown—Alphonse Lutz, Shorty O'Brien—Marvin Poerner, Jessie James—Arnold Weyand, Slick Laxton—Raymond Weyand, Zane Grey—Hubert Lutz.

After a short business session the meeting adjourned and delicious refreshments of cake and coffee were served by the hostesses, Misses Margaret Lutz and Beulah Rudinger.

The hostess, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Nora Bendele, served a refreshing salad course and coffee.

German Remedy Stops 30-Year Constipation

"For 30 years I had a bad stomach and constipation. Sourcing food from stomach choked me. Since taking Adlerika I am a new woman. Constipation is thing of the past."—Alice Burns.

Most remedies reach only lower bowel. That is why you must take them often. But this simple German remedy Adlerika washes out BOTH upper and lower bowel. It brings out all gas and rid's you of poison you would never believe was in your system. Even the FIRST dose will surprise you. W. H. Windrow, Druggist.

IN MEMORIAM.

"Well done thou good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of the Lord," has been spoken to another of God's faithful children who slipped away beyond the shadows just a few days ago. Mrs. Gusie Sikes Holloway, the subject of these words of respect and honor, was born at Pandora, Texas, August 4, 1897, where she spent her girlhood days, with the exception of the short time she was in Public School at Stockdale and Coronal Institute at San Marcos. She was graduated from the latter in 1915 and while there met A. G. Holloway to whom she was married Sept. 4, 1921. Her first home after marriage was at Runge, Texas, but after a time they moved to Brownsville, Texas, where a son, Billy, came to brighten the home. Later they moved to Hondo where in 1927 her daughter, Beth Lorraine, was born. In August of 1931 the little family moved to San Antonio, where on December 27, 1932, she became very ill and after waging a hard but losing battle, both by the medical profession and herself, she passed away in the early morning of January 11, 1933, while surrounded by her loved ones that had hoped against hope for her recovery.

From her early girlhood she was loved for her sunny disposition and beautiful life. She lived an active life, was interested in the things that would develop her mentally, physically and morally and was therefore interested in all that school and church life had to offer her. She united early with the Methodist Church and continued to live an exemplary life that added to her beautiful character. She gave of her time to the Church she loved as she gave to her home, her loved ones and friends, being thoughtful of others and anxious to help in worthwhile things. She was engaged in an effort of mercy when she was stricken with her last illness. Literally following out the injunction of God's Word to be "faithful unto the end." She is gone from us for a while but we know where to find her. She has left us a beautiful life to pattern after and has thrown the torch of loving service to us to carry as faithfully as she did. The last loving words and deeds of tribute and respect were paid in the lovely floral offering, and the kind and sympathetic words of Brother J. J. Mason, spoken at the old home in Pandora and the Methodist Church in Nixon. All that is earthly is laid to rest in the Nixon Cemetery, but her beautiful spirit is with God.

Pall bearers were Harry Hewell, Millard Edwards and Alfred Weber of Nixon and Steve Filleman, Andrew Bless and Homer Wilson of Hondo, Texas. Surviving are her husband, A. G. Holloway, a son, Billy, a daughter, Beth Lorraine, and her mother, four sisters and three brothers. We must see her again.

Adolph Haegelin recently lost a large barn, a quantity of corn, nearly all of his harness and a lot of other things stored in and about his barn, by a fire which originated from an unknown cause. It occurred in the early part of the night but had not burned so much headway when covered that little could be done to save the contents. It is only partly covered by insurance.

Following some spring-like weather for several weeks, during which some fruit trees bloomed out and spring weeds began to grow, a norther began to blow early Tuesday morning. The change came on gradually, but by ten o'clock that evening the wind was rough and bitingly cold. Wednesday morning dawned clear but with the thermometer hovering around the 10 above zero mark, and the ice never melted in some places all day. Thursday morning everything still frozen but the temperature a little warmer. As this is written Thursday morning it is still bitter cold with the sky becoming sickled over with clouds and only a new-comer or the "other kind" would risk a prediction of what will be next. Turn on a little more gas! Friday morning—it's drizzling again!

THIS WOMAN LOST 35 LBS. OF FAT

Miss M. Katner of Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "Have used Kruschen for the past 4 months and have not only lost 35 pounds but feel so much better in every way. Even for people who don't care to reduce, Kruschen is wonderful to keep the system healthy. I being a nurse should know for I've tried so many things but only Kruschen answered all purposes." (May 12, 1932).

To lose fat SAFELY and HARMLESSLY, take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—don't miss a morning—a bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle—but don't take chances—be sure it's Kruschen—your health comes first—get it at W. H. WINDROW'S or any drugstore in America. Mail orders filled. If not joyfully satisfied after the first bottle—money back.

They've Never Tasted a Tonic!

THESE are not patent medicine children. Their appetite needs no coaxing. Their tongues are never coated, cheeks never pale. And their bowels move just like clockwork, because they have never been given a habit-forming laxative.

You can have children like this—and be as healthy yourself—if you follow the advice of a famous family physician. Stimulate the vital organs. The strongest of them need help at times. If they don't get it, they grow sluggish. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a mild, safe stimulant.

When a youngster doesn't do well at school, it may be the liver that's lazy. Often the bowels hold enough poisonous waste to dull the senses. A spoonful of delicious Syrup Pepsin once or twice a week will avoid all this. It contains fresh laxative herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin, and does a world of good to any system—young or old. You can always get this fine prescriptive preparation at any drug store. Just ask them for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Get some Syrup Pepsin today, and protect your family from those bilious days, frequent sick spells and colds. Keep a bottle in the medicine chest instead of cathartics that so often bring on chronic constipation. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can always be employed to give clogged bowels a thorough cleansing, with none of that painful griping, or burning feeling afterward. It isn't expensive.

"I was suffering from a bad Cold... Dr. Miles' Aspir-Mint relieved me." These two sentences are from a letter sent to us by Gypsy Simon Smith.

Mr. Smith spends his public life in the germ-laden atmosphere of crowds in hall, church or tabernacle. He goes from an overheated meeting place into the outer air spiritually uplifted, but physically exhausted.

His profession demands that he do the very things that he should not do if he wants to avoid catching cold. He is in position to speak with authority on the subject.

DON'T SUFFER ANOTHER DAY

Sufferers from rheumatism need more than the mere temporary relief that comes from the use of pain relievers. The system must be freed from the poisons of this agonizing disease.

When your throbbing, swollen joints begin to subside, when aching nerves and muscles begin to relax, when poisons begin to dissolve and drain from the system, you will know beyond a doubt that the RU-NO-MA prescription is removing the cause of your trouble. RU-NO-MA acts quickly and thoroughly—contains no opiates or narcotics—absolutely harmless. Ask your druggist about this amazing prescription. Read the guarantee on every box—don't suffer another day.

JOHN H. SHARY.

To the many friends throughout the fifteenth congressional district who have urged me to run for congress, and to the many citizens of this district who, though not directly contacting me, have expressed their desire that I be a candidate to succeed that great statesman, John N. Garner, Vice-president-elect, I desire to express my deep appreciation. I feel that you will not know how grateful I am to you for this expression of confidence in my ability to serve the constituency of this district in Washington.

This is, of course, an office of great honor to which no man should aspire who does not possess ability, experience, honesty-of-purpose and determination to serve the public impartially, without obligation to special classes, giving equal justice to all.

The insistence of friends and the urgent request of numbers of persons, many of whom I have had the pleasure of meeting, has caused me to keenly feel the responsibility that falls upon every good citizen to do his part in the furtherance of good government. I have never shirked my duty to serve a worthy public cause of a non-political nature, and I hope I never shall, and had it not been for the depression with its problems, I would not have considered making the race for congress, but I have finally come to the conclusion that I must decline to permit my name to be submitted as a candidate. I feel, however, that I should make a statement setting forth the major reasons for my decision.

(1) During the past forty years I have never aspired to a political office with the exception of the chairmanship of our Sharyland Independent School District, which office I have held continuously since first elected about ten years ago.

(2) I am now committed to so many public duties of importance to the people of this district, that I felt it was impossible to make this race in so short a time.

(3) The obligation I owe Hidalgo County as Chairman of its Advisory Board, which is confronted with problems of great importance to the welfare of my home people yet to be worked out;

(4) I have been unable to convince myself that it would be wise at this time to relax my personal efforts, which for more than ten years I have dedicated to the upbuilding of the citrus industry; although in considering making the race for congress it was with the ambition that I might serve to a greater degree in a legislative program which would result in reforms inuring great benefits to this district, state and nation;

(5) The obligation of conducting the affairs of several institutions keeps me exceedingly busy. The responsibility of protecting these investments not alone for personal interest, but of associates, is exceedingly great. Long working hours, energy and effort are required in handling the problems of business under present conditions.

I sincerely hope and believe that the people of this district will carefully select a man of ability and integrity, who will serve and do his utmost to secure much needed relief, and at the same time ably represent us in our legislative problems.

I am taking the liberty of offering a few suggestions which I trust will meet with the favor of the successful candidate.

(a) I believe no greater relief could be afforded this district as well as the state and the nation than nationalizing and promptly putting in effect my plan for social stabilization, which has three purposes:

FIRST: The removal of the unemployed from the cities to farms, by this means increasing the percentage of employed people;

SECOND: To increase the consumption of agricultural commodities;

THIRD: Financial relief to the overburdened farmer. This plan has been endorsed by prominent men throughout the nation for its sound principle and feasibility.

(b) The scope of the R. F. C. should be broadened to permit individuals and corporations, with good security, to borrow money at the same rates and on the same basis as is permitted banks, railroads, insurance companies and mortgage loan companies. The availability of funds through this channel will quickly release the tremendous amount of idle money now held by many banks, as these institutions will not permit the Government to absorb the earning power to which these institutions are logically entitled; result, alleviation of liquidation and stabilization of securities.

The R. F. C. should be more liberal in its loans to certain classes of semi-liquidating institutions, more particularly irrigation districts, providing they can support their bonds with sound values.

(c) DRASTIC ECONOMY: It is of transcendent importance that our public officials exert every effort to reduce the operating cost of government by consolidating bureaus, eliminating those not essential, and installing efficient, economical business practices in all departments.

As to the projects and problems essential within our district, such as the Deep Water Port, Intracoastal Canal, Water Conservation, freight rates, efficient cooperative marketing, pest control and extension citrus season, tariffs, etc., it is naturally assumed that the successful candidate will realize the importance of these things and devote his efforts to their accomplishment.

JOHN H. SHARY.

Bee county farmers are calling on the county agent to fight cut ants. Twenty-four colonies have been treated and practically all have been completely killed out. Carbon disulphide is used except where no cavities are found, and in those places cyanogas is pumped down the runways. These ants have been destroying orchards and truck crops. One bed of ants in the center of a 50-acre field of cabbage cut more than an acre of this cabbage before it was killed.

Notice is hereby given that the Commissioner's Court of Medina County, Texas, on Monday, February 13th, A. D. 1933, at 10 o'clock A. M., in the Court House in the town of Hondo, will receive bids from any banking corporation, association or individual banker, that may desire to act as the depository of the funds of Medina County.

And banking corporation, association or individual banker in Medina County desiring to bid, shall deliver to the County Judge, on or before the time above set forth, a sealed proposal stating the rate of interest that said banking corporation, association or individual banker offers to pay on the funds of the County, computed on daily balances for the term between the date the said bid and the next regular time for the selection of a depository. Said bid shall be accompanied by a certified check of not less than one-half of one per cent of the county revenue of the preceding year as a guaranty of the good faith of the bidder, and that, if his bid should be accepted, he will enter into the bond as provided by law for county depositories, and upon the failure of the banking corporation, association or individual banker in said county that may be selected as such depository, to give the bond required by law, the amount of such certified check shall go to the county as liquidated damages.

The county reserves the right to reject any and all such bids.
 Given under my official hand and seal of office, this 15th day of January, 1933.

A CHALLENGE TO YOUNG PEOPLE.

During the past forty years tens of thousands of young men and women of many nationalities and denominations have sought free training for Christian service at home or abroad offered by The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. More than 2,000 students enrolled in its Day and Evening Schools last year. While for certain special courses a high school background is required, and college training desirable, yet grammar school training will admit to the General Course. English is taught to any deficient in its use.
 The Bible ranks first in all Institutes, but instruction is furnished in such subjects as Sunday School Administration, Daily Vacation Bible School, Gospel Music, Public Speaking, Home Economics, Hygiene, and Manual Training. In special courses are offered Theology, Homiletics, Church History, Apologetics, Hebrew, Yiddish, Greek, and medical subjects for foreign missions work.

There are three terms a year—Fall, Winter, and Summer—but students may enter at any time. An illustrated catalogue will be mailed on request. Address, 153 Institute Place, Chicago Avenue Station, Chicago, Ill.

In 1926 when the first soil improvement work was started in Cameron county by the county agent, only 100 acres of cover crops were planted. This year nearly 10,000 acres were planted to summer and winter cover crops to be plowed and disced under. The chief cover crop is the cow pea.

Sudden DROPS in TEMPERATURE

On February 7, Old Man Winter again came howling out of the north with bitter cold weather. This time the extremely cold weather came more suddenly than usual, with the temperature dropping in some places as much as 50 degrees in just a few hours.

These sudden drops in temperature impose greatly increased demands on the facilities of your Gas Company, because, as may be expected, all consumers, suddenly and almost in unison, begin to use gas service in large volume. In many instances, the volume of gas required on a cold day increases to as much as ten times the volume required on a day of average temperature conditions.

Your Gas Company has undertaken the job of supplying you with all the gas you want, as and when you want it. In order that this job may be done to your satisfaction, substantial investments have been made in facilities adequate to take care of your maximum needs. And when you think of the rate you pay for gas service, please bear in mind that rates must be sufficient to support a system consisting of gas wells, compressor stations, transmission pipe lines, and distribution facilities that are capable of supplying an occasional demand which is several times greater than the average demand.

The most efficient and economical Natural Gas service is obtainable when your appliances are in good working order. Your Gas Company will be glad to inspect and adjust any appliance that is not burning properly. There is no charge for this service. Just call the Gas Company office or ask the service man to assist you.

CLASS AT DEVINE POST OFFICE
PLACED AT $1,500.00.

We reported the postoffice robbed
our last issue, but went to press early to get particulars. The robbery and robbery must have occurred around 3 A. M. Frank Ester and H. Griffin were working in town all night, and Meister stepped a high-powered car in town about 3 A. M., driving slowly, but supposed that it went on. Below is report given the San Antonio Express.
Thieves entered the postoffice here
Wednesday morning, broke open the safe and escaped with loot valuing $1,500, according to Jean
H. Postmistress.
The robbery was discovered by H. Bendele, assistant postmaster, who reported to work at 7 A. M.
Wednesday. A lock had been broken on the front door of the building and a bar across the door displaced.
The thieves knocked the knob off the safe and opened it.
Postal inspectors from San Antonio found finger prints on top of the safe which they hope will identify the robbers. Loot taken included $150 in stamps, $150 in Government cash, $30 personal funds of the postmistress, a diamond dinner ring, several gold coins and some rare stamps.
Dr. G. S. Woods told postal inspectors he noticed a car parked in front of the postoffice at 3 A. M. but paid no attention to it.

TWELVE THOUSAND SHEEP ON FEED AT MEDINA MILLS.

While waiting for a little business matter at the Medina Mills one day this week, Manager M. E. Howard asked us to take a walk to see their lamb on feed; around 12,000 he said. The sheep had just been moved, some of them, at least, to cleaner and more sanitary pens; and we walked down a lane approximately one-fourth mile, I would say, with sheep pens, and lambs by the thousands on either side. Some of them were as fat as they ever need to be and others had just been shipped in.
Mr. Howard said they are shipping in and shipping out to market practically every week. We also were shown through the mills to the third story. Mr. Howard told The News man that they were buying raw materials and making thirty tons of feed every day when running steady.
They manufacture several kinds of chicken feeds and cow feeds for the market, besides what they feed to these 12,000 sheep, a big lot of hogs, etc. W. G. Driscoll's men of Devine were unloading several large wagon loads of corn, just out of the fields, for which he was getting 25 cents
the bushel, we were told. The Mills are anxious that farmers plant a lot of yellow corn; it makes better chicken feed, and they pay two cents the bushel more for the yellow corn.
They buy corn, shucks, hay and all kinds of grain sorghum hay; ship in some materials such as cotton seed meal and blackstrap molasses, possibly some alfalfa; but peanut hay is a very good substitute for alfalfa, we believe.

Attorneys L. J. Brucks and Harper Fly were attorneys from Hondo attending court here Monday in the Thompson-Powers civil suit in J. P. court.

Local financial institutions say but for the creamery, the elevator, the can-nary and the feed mills, this section would be in hard shape, as farming seems to be at a very low ebb.

Most of your suffering from common every-day aches and

MR. LAWLER ANNOUNCES.

TO THE ELECTORATE OF THE 15TH DISTRICT:

With the refusal of Congressman-Elect Garner to qualify for the position to which he was re-elected by the people in the November Election, he preferring to accept that second highest office within the gift of the Nation, the Vice-Presidency, the Electorate of the 15th Congressional District is called upon to make another choice in their congressional representation.

In 1924, although a Democrat by long family tradition, as well as by personal conviction, I granted the request that my name appear as a Texas Elector on the LaFollette-Independent Ticket. My action was prompted by the same motive that now causes me to announce as a candidate for Congress from this district. I desire now, as I did then, to give the independents and liberals an opportunity to express their sentiments by the ballot.

I have, and offer no apology, for having in 1924, departed from the fold of the Democratic Party. Should any question be raised because of my action, as may be done, I submit to the free and independent Electorate of this District, that instead of censure, it is to my credit that, rejecting the council of friends of long standing, and in the face of the censure of associates in business, I aligned myself openly, whole heartedly and above board, with the men and women that I was then convinced, and I am still of the same opinion, were then the real leaders in political liberalism.

For be it remembered that Robert A. LaFollette, with the Independents of 1924, advocated, as does Franklin D. Roosevelt now, a new political deal, and the recognition of the forgotten man.

Let no man charge that the gallant and courageous LaFollette and those who joined him in the organization of the Independent Movement of 1924, were actuated by hope, or expected immediate political success. None will have the temerity to insinuate that there could have been any hope of financial gain!

For years the voice of the "Little Giant of Wisconsin" rang out in the halls of Congress, protesting the enactment of legislation inimicable and injurious to the welfare of the people. At times he was aided by liberal Democrats, and the few liberals, who like himself, were elected as Republicans. Almost single handed, LaFollette forced the predatory and corporate wealth controlled majorities in Congress, and these majorities had proportionately as many Democrats as Republicans—to forego the passage of special privilege granting legislation. With indomitable spirit he forced the passage of legislative measures that stand as mile-stones in this Nation's onward progress toward a fulfillment of the Democratic ideals of the Revolutionary Fathers.

For the past four years, and more, the economic, political, and moral debacle—prophesied in 1924 by the Liberals as inevitable unless this country speedily repudiated the predatory wealth and corporate controlled majorities then in possession of the machinery of both of the Major Parties—has come upon the Nation. Too late to avert what amounts to the greatest economic, as well as moral breakdown that has ever scourged this country, the people have at last arisen in rebellion, and on November 8th of last year striking their first blow, elected Franklin D. Roosevelt, by an overwhelming vote, to the Presidency.

With the election of Roosevelt, "the Liberal", the Highways and Byways are becoming clogged with men, loudly proclaiming in one breath their liberalism, and in the next breath demanding and making much over party regularity. These are but "Summer" Democrats and "Sunshine" Liberals, partisans for self and seekers of political office and preferment. Claiming liberalism, they would deny unto those eight million liberal Republicans, who by their vote made possible the election of Roosevelt and Garner, any credit in the victory. They would deny them their earned right to assist in a reorganization of our government.

Shouting, "All is well," and, "We have won a victory," these Sunshine Liberals are even now conspiring to oppose and defeat any and all efforts of the incoming President to give to the people a "New Deal", and to carry out his promise to remember the forgotten man, for the making of which promise he was before his nomination denounced as a demagogue, and a menace to the Nation, by men in his own party.

The people have won a battle, but they have not won the Victory that is needed to make this country safe for all of the people. All is not well within the party of Jefferson and Jackson. The same sinister combine of the Bourbons of the South, with the corrupt and predatory wealth controlled municipal rings of the Northern cities still operates, and now as of old, hangs like a mill stone around the neck, and burdens every effort of the real Democrat within the party to live up to and carry out the ideals of its founders. In the next Congress this combine, re-inforced by a like combination that is in control of the Republican Party, comprised of men, who while praising and claiming Lincoln as the founder of that party, have long since been guilty of the greatest political Apostasy within the history of this Republic, this combine of BOURBON, SCALAWAG and APOSTATE will be discovered shoulder to shoulder, fighting by foul as well as fair means to divert and defeat the will of the majority of the people of this Nation, as expressed by their ballots in the past November election.

Even now the country is deluged with propaganda setting forth in specious argument the need and necessity for the enactment by the Federal Government of a Federal Sales Tax. This regardless of the declaration by the president-elect that such a tax is undemocratic, and unworthy of consideration by men professing democratic belief. Has the announcement of opposition by Franklin D. Roosevelt sufficed to stop the efforts of these interests to foist this nefarious tax upon the people? No! Not at all! They do not remain silent—the very air is filled with their weasel words and insidious suggestions for a Federal Tax in their misnamed "educational" broadcasting programs.

And thus with the very air of the country, from North, South, East and West, ringing with propaganda poisoned addresses, with like articles appearing in the syndicated and corporate controlled newspapers and magazines, our free and independent press having long since departed this world, with the exception of the country press and the few big city independents, it is well that the Electorate of the Republic be on their guard.

And when the people of the 15th Congressional District go forward to cast their ballots on February 25th, let them follow in principle the advice of Washington, given on the eve of the Battle of Ticonderoga, put none but a Liberal, a time tested Liberal on guard.

In soliciting the Democratic nomination at the hands of the Democrats and of all Liberals, I ask their vote not as a candidate of any State or County Faction, but as one who without entangled alliances can go to Congress and serve the interests of the people as a whole.

Dr. J. A. Cockerell, Chiropractor, who is looking after Dr. Davis' practice here during the latter's absence, was a caller at this office Monday. He informed us that there will be a Chiropractic Clinic here March 6th and 7th. Watch for announcements. Fortunately for the county, the extremely cold weather of last week, during which the oat crop was frozen back to the ground and some killed outright, as were also the early spring vegetation in the pastures, has been followed by cloudy weather with considerable rain and moderate temperature. The precipitation Wednesday and Wednesday night amounted to 1.10 inch and will be of great benefit if not followed by any more freezing temperature.

JORDAN T. LAWLER.

In the coming Democratic Congressional Primary in the 15th District the voters will see upon the ticket the name of Jordan T. Lawler, a name that has never appeared upon a Texas ticket for any office other than one bestowing honor only.

Mr. Lawler was born in New Orleans. His father, H. T. Lawler, took an active part in freeing Louisiana from Carpet-Bag Rule, and aided in the suppression of the Louisiana State Lottery. The candidate comes of an ancestry that includes within it, pioneer blood of the Lone Star State. On his mother's side, he is the great grandson of two Texas pioneers whose bodies have lain since 1852 in that tragic ground wherein is marked the site of the former Indianola Cemetery. His great-grandfather having been James P. Fulkerson, and his great grandmother Agatha Steinbeck, both natives of Missouri, born in the old pioneer river city of Cape Girardeau.

The sister of James P. Fulkerson, was the mother of the late Governor Sul Ross.

The name of his grandfather on his mother's side, Jordan T. Aycock, will awaken the memories of those last remaining pioneer cattlemen. Mr. Aycock was intimately connected by business and friendship with many of the early day shippers of livestock to New Orleans. On the Aycock side, Mr. Lawler goes back to Tennessee and North Carolina stock. His great-grandfather, Robert Aycock, was one of the staunch young supporters of Old Hickory, and his great-grandson is in possession of a hickory walking stick carried by Robert Aycock when the sharp heels of the boots of Old Hickory's Tennessee Guard rang thru the halls and rooms of the White House on the night of his first term inauguration.

Mr. Lawler came to Bryan, Texas, from New Orleans in 1910 and since then has been actively engaged in constructing and operating public utility plants. He has been located in Castroville for the past 5 years. (Political Advertisement)

HULDA WEBER.

THROW ON THE LIGHT.

The deceased, Hulda Weber, nee Breiten, was born at Quihi on March 1888. She was one of eight children born to Joseph and Katherine Breiten. While still an infant the parents had the child baptized in the Lutheran Church at Quihi. By this time she became a member of the Kingdom of God. She confirmed her faith by being confirmed on May 1902, also at the same church. Her schooling was in the neighborhood of Quihi.

On September 21, 1904, she departed because the wife of Emil Weber. They made their home in Hondo during the life of the departed. This union was blessed with several children, 2 children who passed away in infancy and three children living.

The departed suffered for a long time from asthma. It seemed to become worse as time wore on. A severe attack last Saturday kept her in bed. On Monday, Feb. 13, she passed away at 4 o'clock. About 100 friends gathered to see her last. They were shocked to find her so young. The deceased reached the age of 44 years, 11 months and 15 days.

Her grief-stricken husband is left to mourn her passing. The departed left 3 children, Josie Krenmueller of Hondo, Nellie Oefinger of San Antonio and one son, Alford. She also leaves to mourn her decease her mother, Katherine Breiten, 2 brothers, Willie Breiten of Hondo and Louis Breiten of Uvalde, and one sister, Bertha Wernette of Hondo. Her brothers and her father preceded her in death.

Interment was made in Hondo, Tuesday afternoon, after services in the Hondo Chapel at 4 o'clock. Rev. Leifarth officiating. Pallbearers were John M. Finger, Geo. R. Schuehle, Andrew Bless, B. Dawson and Louis Carter.

A host of relatives and many friends extend heartfelt sympathy in this hour of grief. "So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom."

W. LEIBFARTH.

LOUIS RIHN DEAD.

Mr. Louis Rihn died Friday evening, February 10, 1933, at the home of Adolph Haas in Hondo, after an illness of several weeks' duration. His remains were taken to Castroville where they were buried Sunday afternoon in St. Louis cemetery, the funeral being conducted according to the beautiful and impressive rites of the Catholic Church of which he had been a life-long communicant.

Mr. Rihn was born at Castroville, March 14, 1870, and had, therefore, attained the age of 62 years, 10 months and 26 days at the time of his demise. He spent his life in Medina County, growing up to manhood and residing at Castroville where, on September 26, 1893, he married Miss Theresa Haby. Eight children were born to this union, seven of whom with their mother survive the husband and father. The children who survive are five sons and two daughters, being in the order of their ages, Frank, Alfred, Mrs. Raymond Schott, and J. C. Mrs. Walter Stein and Wesley. Gus is deceased. The sisters both reside in the Riomedina home while the brothers and their mother all reside in the Biry Community. Eight grandchildren are all left to mourn his departure.

Besides his immediate family, he was also survived by one sister, Mrs. August Obitz and four brothers, Joe, Jack, Laurence and Willie, all of Castroville. The family moved from Castroville to the Biry community several years ago where Mr. Rihn was a successful farmer until stricken with a final illness. He was a good citizen and neighbor and an active member of Franz Josef Lodge of the O. R. S. of Biry. He will be missed by his family, his neighbors and acquaintances who had known him long and loved him most.

This paper joins in sympathy for those who mourn.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Mary Jane Mask nee Carter, subject of this sketch, was born in Corinth, Mississippi, Oct. 11, 1849. She was married to William Kerby Mask soon after the War between the States. To this union there were six children, three sons and three daughters, namely: Rufus of Hondo, Walter of Hondo, Joshua of Antonio; Katie, now Mrs. Canon, of California; Lola, now Mrs. Joel Schuy, of Jourdan; Cleo, who became Mrs. Huggins, now deceased. In addition to the children named above survive 14 grandchildren and great grandchildren. The husband of the deceased died in July, 1926, and was buried in Hondo.

Mrs. Mask died on Feb. 9th at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Busby, at Jourdan, Texas. The funeral was held from the local Funeral Parlors, conducted by Pastor R. W. Merrill of the local Baptist church.

About the year 1884, Mr. Mask with his family moved to Texas, settling in Delta County at Pecan Gap, after moving to Medina County. Mrs. Mask was a devout Christian woman, who exemplified her faith in a consistent life of gentleness, unselfishness and kindly spirit towards all. The memory of dear Mrs. Mask will ever be sweet to her loved ones and all who knew her. May her fine Christian spirit give a blessing to her children and grandchildren. It is written: blessed be the dead who die in the Lord. Life's labor done, as sinks the day. Light from its load, the spirit flies: While heaven and earth combine to say, How blest the righteous when he dies.

HON. NOBLE G. COFER.

The crying need of the present day is for broadminded, evenly balanced, honorable and thinking men; men who are not aligned with or associated with political machines or combines; men who will think and act independently and always with the thought of serving the common people.

All of the candidates who have announced for office are, without question, fine gentlemen, but fine gentlemen do not always make good congressmen. Therefore, the question is, who is best fitted for the office, and has this man a chance to win.

It seems that some people (as indicated in a two column article in S. A. Express of Feb. 14th, 1933) believe that the race lies between Milton West and Gordon Griffin, both Valley candidates. Other candidates from the Valley, according to said article, are completely out of the race. Mr. Milton West has the support of big business interests and is backed by the Archie Pharr political ring. Gordon Griffin has the support of the Good Government League and is known as a reformer and extremist. No doubt both of these gentlemen will receive a large vote owing to the following as above indicated.

However, there is another very strong man from the valley who has been entirely overlooked or ignored in said big daily article. His name is Noble G. Cofer. Cofer is strictly a self-made man and is loved, respected and admired by thousands of his friends in the valley. Mr. Cofer is not backed by the big business interests, nor by any political ring or combine. Neither is he a reformer nor extremist. He is just a big, broadminded, courageous, honest fellow with a heap of good common sense and whose heart is with the common people.

It is interesting indeed to note that in the recent primary election for governor when the common people under the leadership of Jim Ferguson arose in their might to remove from power the most extravagant and most mismanaged administration which ever had control of our State, that we find Mr. West, Mr. Griffin, Mr. Tips, Mr. Pulliam, and others in this race, on the Sterling bandwagon. It was a time when Jim Ferguson

QUIHI NOTES.

Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead. 2 Tim. 2:8.

The history of mankind is replete with truly memorable biographies for encouragement and guidance and we derive untold benefits by giving them close perusal, but none equals the life sketch of Christ. The incidents and characteristics—from Bethlehem to Calvary, from manger to sepulcher, from Gen. 3:15 to Rev. 22:21—defy comparison. Anyone who is worthy of life-long meditation. St. Paul, however, stresses His close connection with human conditions, becoming one of us by descending from a well known and remarkable dynasty, stresses the fact that He is alive for our problems and requires. And on this basis the apostle enjoins: Be strong, endure hardness, endure all things, the Lord knoweth them that are His.

but the Lord has blessed the skill of her physicians and the ministrations of her nurses, and we are glad to know her on the road towards speedy recovery.

Quite a number of people, including many visitors, turned out for the last service at New Fountain and the installation of the vestrymen: Messrs. John Lindeburg, Carl Nietenhoefer and Rolf Saathoff. May God bless their efforts.

A particularly fine program of the Luther League was the one of last Sunday. The three selections of the church choir carried vim and pathos; the male choir number is always a "hit", the double duet selected by Miss Anna Loesberg and the mixed quartet selected by Miss Esther Bohlen struck happy notes, as did the instrumental duet presented by Misses Hilda Mumme and Alma Grell. The two readings were touching timely topics and well articulated by Misses Hulda Neumann and Agnes Hartmann. Miss Ida Balzen gave a touching declamation. The declamation of Miss Elen Hartmann was an event both in keen memory work, fine elocution and in a gallant survey of our U. S. presidents and their conspicuous achievements. The pastor lectured on Gen. 1 and tried to bring out a few salient points worthy of notice from modern angles of scrutiny. The little Misses Nora and Annie Prucks responded with a volunteer number in their usual courageous and happy manner. A fine evening for a well filled house.

PANICS 'EM!

"Poisonality, folks—that what does it?"

That's how Jimmy Durante, beak-nosed comedian who looks like anything but the answer to a maiden's prayer, explains his success with the feminine section of Hollywood movie colony.

For Jimmy undoubtedly has made good with the femmes of the flickers. You'd never guess it from seeing him on the screen—as you may, with George M. Cohan and Claudette Colbert in "The Phantom President", which comes to the Colonial Theatre this Friday and Saturday—but Mrs. Durante's little boy has turned out to be one of the most popular gentlemen in Hollywood—at least as far as the ladies are concerned.

When working hours are over, and film stars set out to play, you'll find Jimmy in the midst of the fun, with a blonde on one arm, a brunette on the other, and a redhead tagging along behind.

"One at a time Not me!" Jimmy explains, proudly "I take 'em in quantities."

Sleek-haired, perfectly-accounted players, gathering womanless and envious on the other side of the room, glance sadly at Jimmy's none-too-carefully-pressed pants, none-too-bushy locks, and none-too-tiny "snozzle", and wonder how come.

"Poisonality," Jimmy answers. "Maybe just because he's so different than the usual run of Hollywood male," ventures someone else.

At any rate, Jimmy continues to panic the dames, much to his own, and their delight.

You can try to figure it out as you watch him in "The Phantom President".

There he plays the role of a medicine-show barker, pal of Cohan, also a barker. But Cohan plays another role, too—that of a candidate for president apparently equipped thoroughly for that office, but lacking the "poisonality" to win votes. When politicians discover the barker to be a dead ringer for the candidate, they hire him to pose as the candidate to round up public support.

Aided by Jimmy, he goes to it with gusto, and, until the actual candidate and he come to blows over Miss Colbert, all seems to go smoothly. Then follows a dramatic and comic climax that changes the entire course of events.

HONDO, TEXAS

COL. CHARLES R. TIPS CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

(Continued from opposite page) which gave the farmers and ranchmen the benefit of 5 1/2% to 6% interest rates, with nearly 40 years time to pay the principal. The battle was carried to the Supreme Court of the United States. The victory we won has saved millions of dollars in interest charges alone to the land owners of South Texas.

The trouble with the Farm Loan System has been that during the twelve years of Republican rule, it has gotten into hands lacking sympathy with the problems of the farmer. Mellon and Meyer have dominated the Farm Loan Board and they have tried to apply the same practices to farmers that apply on call loans in New York. This will be changed, when the Democrats who have always been the friends of agriculture, return to power in Washington.

Through the arbitrary rulings of the powers in charge the benefits of this law have heretofore been denied to land owners in the Lower Rio Grande Valley, although loans have been freely made on irrigated lands in California. When normal conditions return, so that loans are again being made in other sections, I pledge myself to fight until the discriminations against irrigated lands of South Texas has been removed. With your backing and support, this can be accomplished.

As part of the Democratic economic program I shall advocate the abolition of the Farm Loan Board, leaving only the Farm Loan Commissioner to handle this bureau under the supervision of the Secretary of the Treasury. The Farm Loan Commissioner runs this system now and the three other members who are mere rubber stamps at $10,000.00 per year each, plus traveling expenses, can very well be dispensed with.

My experience along this line should help materially in solving the farm credit problem which Congress must handle satisfactorily to save agriculture.

During this critical period emergency credit facilities must be provided to permit the orderly continuance of business. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation has helped some interests, but its operations have been limited to what John Garner called "President Hoover's select clientele". Branches of this Corporation should be established so that any man in this district will have a convenient place to go where he can borrow at low rates of interest for productive purposes, and to prevent further unemployment, on the same collateral that he could have used in getting a loan from any bank four or five years ago. In other words, on the principle enunciated by Thomas Jefferson of EQUAL RIGHTS TO ALL AND SPECIAL PRIVILEGES TO NONE, which should be our guiding star on all questions, the operation of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation should not be limited to big banks, insurance companies, railroads, and the like, but should be available to any individual who has equally acceptable collateral.

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation is a temporary expedient made necessary by the practically complete collapse of credit facilities in the United States. A permanent solution will be worked out through a revision of our banking laws. A drastic change is necessary to prevent bank failures in the future and to provide a dependable source of credit to insure the normal functioning of business.

Business men will want some one with practical experience to represent them in handling this problem. That being the case, no man should be elected to represent you who has not had to meet Saturday night payrolls. No man should be elected to represent you who has not had to meet maturing obligations, with nothing in sight to pay with but expected proceeds from his growing crops. No man should be elected to represent you who has not had the experience of going from one bank to another almost begging for a loan on good collateral.

In connection with the revision of our banking laws I want it distinctly understood that I am strictly opposed to the Government going into the banking business as a permanent policy, in competition with private citizens. I am opposed to the establishment of a banking system "controlled and backed by the United States Government", as advocated by one of my opponents. The measures I have advocated in connection with the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, are like that corporation itself, purely emergency measures, to end when this emergency ends.

Strict governmental supervision in return for the granting of a charter is perfectly proper and necessary. Stringent laws to prevent future bank failures are proper and necessary. But Thomas Jefferson and other great men who have kept the principles of democracy alive through the life of this republic would turn over in their graves at the idea of the Federal Government "controlling" the granting of credit to every individual in this nation. The end of all our liberties would be in sight if the control of our credit system was surrendered to a Federal Bureaucracy.

Not only is the control of our credit structure by the Federal Government abhorrent to States Rights Democrats, but the permitting by the Federal Government of Wall Street financial control and domination of this country or the permitting of monopolistic control of any industry is contrary to Democratic principles. This section must develop industrially if we are to find our proper place in the sun. We must make more of the things we use and develop a home market for the things we produce, if we are to get away from the position of a colonial dependency. Sad experience has demonstrated that we must fight for every inch of industrial progress we make. The industrial giants in the East do not want to see this profitable market taken away from them. Therefore this district is especially interested in the strengthening of the Anti-Trust laws.

National defense is a matter of great importance in this district. In this connection, I favor the retention of the Border Posts, the organization of a National Guard unit in the lower Valley, the building and maintaining of adequate military highways along the coast and along the border and from there to San Antonio. I favor full justice to the ex-service men, especially those disabled in war who have contributed with their life blood to our national defense. Because the war profiteers may have lost some of their profits, is no reason why the adjusted compensation agreed to as due to those who were in the military service should not be paid in full as soon as the Federal Government is able to pay it.

To my personal knowledge the United States has been cut to the irreducible minimum, so that the defense policy established by the Democratic Party at the close of the World War is actually endangered. How one of my opponents, while admitting that our national defense is at a minimum, can devote nearly one-fifth of his entire platform to raving about the expense of national defense, is more than I can understand.

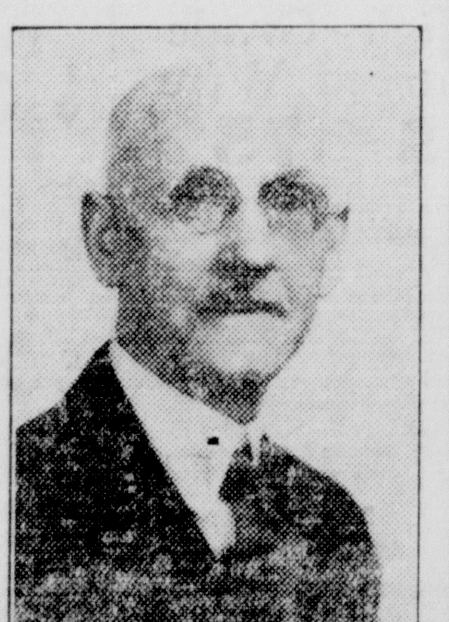

The greatest advocates of peace are those who know from actual experience what war is. But dreadful as war is, dishonor is a greater evil. Every red blooded American citizen will demand that his wife and mother and sisters and children and those of his neighbors must be protected at any cost. The first duty of any government is to protect the lives and property of its citizens.

On account of the fact that our cotton crop is largely exported, Texas is particularly interested in the restoration of world trade. As the representative of this district, I will therefore be particularly active in seeing that the economic conference advocated in the Democratic Platform is called at the earliest possible time. The strangling of world trade on account of the policies of the Republican Administration and the retaliation of other nations has not only helped to destroy the value of our cotton, but has been one of the chief causes of world-wide unemployment, and the process must be reversed before permanent improvement can be expected. While agreeing wholeheartedly with the Democratic doctrine of a competitive tariff for revenue, I will fight as your representative for equality of protection for agricultural and live stock products.

Industrial development in Texas, and especially in this district is largely dependent on the growth of our trade with Mexico and other Latin American countries. Friendly relations with Mexico are also vitally necessary if we are to carry out the program which I will discuss later for conserving and utilizing the flood-waters of the Rio Grande. While I favor full protection of our working men, I believe harsh immigration and deportation laws advocated by one of my opponents, and obviously aimed by him especially at Mexican citizens, could only result in bad feeling between the two countries. His election would, therefore, not only interfere with the building up of trade, but would endanger the entire development program of the Rio Grande Valley, and result in pernicious retaliation.

While a program of necessary public work is essential at this time, it is vitally important that we return to the practice of rigid governmental economy. The crushing burden of taxation must be relieved by reducing governmental expenses. The Democratic Party has promised in its national platform to reduce the cost of government at least 25% by eliminating all extravagance, combining bureaus and departments and abolishing useless commissions and offices. The budget should be balanced, not by imposing new taxes, but by reducing expenses—Extracts from Opening Speech of Hon. Charles R. Tips.

The season for tree-planting is at hand. Trees are mankind's most generous friends. They ask only for an otherwise waste place upon which to grow, they hold his soil in place preventing destructive erosion, they shade him from the burning heat of a noonday summer sun, they feed him with their autumn fruits, and in winter they give their bodies to build his house against the storms and fagots to keep the hearth-fires burning. And yet man's avarice has been most destructive of this richest bounty from Nature's lavish hand; his indifference to their restoration is one of his worst sins of neglect. Plant a tree!

PUFFED-UP INTELLIGENCE!

The Woman's Home Companion is owned by New York people and its editorials are written also in New York. That may account for some of its conceited opinions; but it is printed and sent out from Springfield, Ohio. One Mrs. Gertrude Lane appears as the editorial writer.

She evidently has little sympathy for the ex-soldier. Her editorial of January takes a decided stand against what she calls the "Cash Bonus". She refers to it thus: "If it meets with a genuine test of intelligence and courage, it will be defeated."

In other words, she thinks those who vote "for payment" are lacking in intelligence. Now isn't that complimentary to the soldiers and their friends? But it is just like those New Yorkers who live by rent and interest, on stocks, bonds, mortgages, insurance, etc.

Such people are accustomed to think they are the brains of the world. Their minds and bodies have been so long the idle abodes of the devil that they want everybody who works to worship them. The devil, you remember, wanted Christ to come down and worship him.

Today Mrs. Lane not only thinks the soldier who wants back pay is "unintelligent", but she thinks they are "mercenary". She acknowledges that it was a mistake to call some men out to die in battle while we encouraged a greater number here at home to prosper in security; but she thinks we cannot rectify the mistake. Well, that is intelligence, isn't it? She might make the effort.

The trouble with her is she doesn't want any effort made to rectify that mistake. She and her people were the greatest recipients of prosperity during the war, and we see plainly why she doesn't want to be "income-taxed" to refund any part of her profits.

The "cash bonus plan" is an attempt to rectify the mistake of letting the millionaires "cash in" during the war, and Mrs. Lane of New York does not want this corrected, and she does not want them to have to divide up any now with the boys who suffered in the trenches, and exposed their heads as targets behind sandbags, for German bullets.

She is not "mercenary" of course, and she is evidently very "intelligent". Bah! Such intelligence! Mrs. Lane and her millionaire neighbors are not so much to be blamed for making reasonable profits during the war, but it is reprehensible for them to pocket such profits, and then slur the real fighters for wanting reasonable pay for their services.

Such people as these forcibly remind us of the congressman who went to war and drew a Lieutenant's salary, and when he came back he turned around and fought the payment of the soldiers' certificates notwithstanding the fact that he had six thousand dollars in his own pocket which he had just drawn as congressional back pay over and above his two thousand dollars which he drew while he was enlisted as a lieutenant in the army.

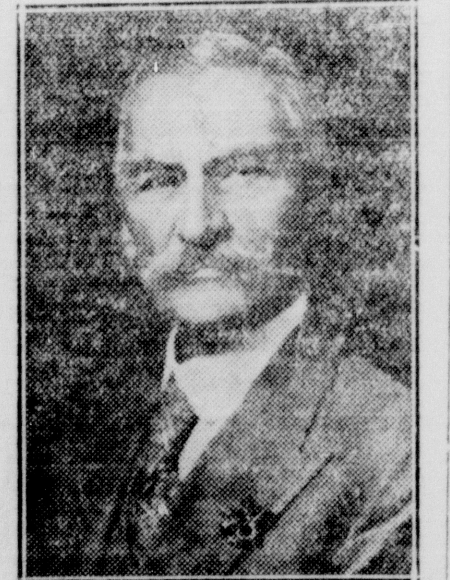

It thus appeared that his bonus was four times the measly pay which the soldier was asking, and he had already drawn his, and yet he was opposing his buddies drawing anything.

He and Mrs. Lane evidently stand together, and are very representative of that class who in their own opinions are so "intelligent" and not at all "mercenary". Such people are not by any means an ornament to the manhood or womanhood, or patriotism of the country.

P. A. SPAIN, Paris, Texas.

Humane considerations demand that the hungry shall be fed and the naked clothed—even to the dividing of our last crust of bread and tearing off of the last thread of surplusage of the last breech-cloth—when they are sick, afflicted or otherwise incapacitated to earn their daily bread. But the notion that the government owes any man a job just to give him work and should tax the public to put men to work at unneeded and non-productive labor is foreign to the purposes of government and will prove vicious and destructive in practice. As funds are exhausted in labor that produces no returns in created wealth, additional funds must be wrung from already overburdened taxpayers; as more taxpayers fall under their burden larger becomes the army of unemployed and heavier the demand until all must go down, like an avalanche, in one common ruin to all. The germ of this catastrophe is at the heart of every proposal yet made by Hoover for unemployment relief; and the great "engineer" hasn't the understanding to see it!

FEED THE HENS MILK OR MEAT.

By Zella Wigent.

Agricultural Extension Department International Harvester Company.

Hens are high-gear animals. It takes a lot of protein to keep them going and to furnish the protein necessary for high egg production. The first great improvement in feeding farm poultry came when we learned the importance of providing animal protein.

Feeding bran, shorts, alfalfa, clover, soybeans, field peas, and other vegetable products rich in protein lessens the amount of the more expensive animal protein needed, but vegetable protein will not take the place of meat or milk.

Milk is the best protein for chickens. It makes laying hens lay more eggs; it helps to keep hens healthy, it makes better hatching eggs; it promotes growth in chicks.

Milk can be fed either sweet or sour but do not feed it sweet one day and sour the next. Sour milk is preferred by many because it is laxative.

Milk has a large percentage of water. Used as an only source of protein, it is too bulky to secure best results from high production hens.

Even where plenty of milk is available it is a good practice to put some beef scrap in the ration.

All the milk the hens will use plus soy bean or pea meal in the ration also gives good results.

Semi-solid buttermilk, dried milk and dried buttermilk are by-products that can be bought to good advantage in many sections of the country.

Get a good grade of beef scrap—one testing 60 or 65 per cent protein.

Beef scrap should smell sweet and fresh. It should not swell tremendously when water is added.

When beef scrap is the only source of animal protein, it is used at the rate of 18 or 20 pounds per hundred pounds of mash.

When milk is available, about ten pounds of meat scrap per hundred pounds of mash is sufficient.

If milk with soybean meal or pea meal in the mash is used as the protein feed, a mineral mixture of bone meal, limestone and salt should be added to the mash. Two pounds of bone meal, one pound of limestone, and one pound of salt to each 100 pounds of mash is the proportion of these minerals usually recommended.

GOOD MEDICINE.

Mayor-elect Carson of Portland, Oregon, has prescribed some good medicine for public consumption. He said: "We must quit asking the government to be a wet nurse to everything."

"We must realize that the people support the government, not that the government supports the people."

"We cannot get out of debt by going farther into debt."

"We must cut the cost of government, for in that way lies the only avenue of relief at present."

"I am not an alarmist, but we must admit that none of us knows whether or not we have hit the bottom in this deflation of credits that is now going on."

"We must maintain the stability of the economic order, must preserve our institutions; if we do not, it will mean that we are breaking the last timber that holds the roof of protection over our heads."

"The protection of life, property and health are the fundamental duties of our government. All else is superfluous. We must hold to these fundamentals and turn our back upon these other intriguing things, if we are to hold what we have and build solidly for the future."

Portland is fortunate to have elected a mayor who has the courage to advocate such practical and fundamental American ideas.

WHAT THE NEW TAXES MEAN.

A recent Associated Press dispatch from Washington gave an interesting insight into what the new revenue bill will mean to the wage earner.

A married business man with one child, having a net income of $6,000 will pay an income tax to the Federal government of $124 as against $23.63 in the past. If he buys a $600 automobile he will have to pay a new tax of $18 plus 60 cents for taxes on tires, etc. If he uses 700 gallons of gasoline during the year and 30 gallons of lubricating oil, he will pay a tax of $8.20, in addition to state gas and oil taxes. If his wife gets a $200 fur coat the tax will be $20.

If he makes home brew he will pay about $3 in taxes on malt. His wife's perfumes, powder etc., will cost another $3. If he buys a $75 radio and pays $100 for an electric refrigerator, the taxes will be $3.75 and $5, respectively. He will pay increased taxes on cameras, electricity, matches, the telephone and a hundred other commodities and services. If he spends $2 a week for shows and movies, the Treasury will get $10 from him by the end of the year.

His total direct taxes will be about $310, as against about $174 under the old rates—an increase of $236. It looks as if the new bill will fatten a depleted Treasury—but it's going to make a deep hole in the public pocketbook. And these taxes are only a beginning unless definite steps are taken to curb the expense of government, the cost of which increases like compound interest as the number of public employes grows.—Industrial News Review.

CHARLES R. TIPS Candidate for Democratic Nomination FOR CONGRESS

Solicits Your Vote and Support at Feb. 25th Primary

MY FRIENDS OF THE 15TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

You are engaged in a terrific battle for existence, in a battle to save your home or your farm, in a battle to hold your job or to find work and the means of keeping body and soul together. You have lost all or part of your life's savings. You can't buy the things you want for yourself or your family. You can't get enough to do any good for your cattle, your cotton, your fruit, or anything you have to sell. No matter what you paid for it, you can't borrow on your land or anything else. Your taxes have been steadily increased and there is no hope to pay them with your business running at a loss.

I know your situation because I have been going through the same thing myself.

In November you and the people of almost every other State voted by an overwhelming majority in favor of a new deal in National affairs. As a result of that vote, our Congressman, the Honorable John N. Garner, who as Speaker of the House has been leading the fight for the rights of the people against special privilege, was elevated to the Vice-Presidency of the United States. That makes it necessary for you to select a new representative to fight your battles in Washington.

It is with a solemn realization of the importance of the work and of the responsibility that will rest upon any one who takes the place about to be vacated, after thirty years of faithful service by the Honorable John N. Garner, that I ask you to elect me to represent this great 15th District of Texas in the Congress of the United States.

This is the first time that I have ever been a candidate for any public office. I am not a politician. I am not a lawyer. I am not a 4th of July orator. But I am a hard worker and a hard fighter for anything I undertake, and I want you to know my record of helping to build Texas.

Compare that record with the record of each of my opponents. Then if you think any one of them is better qualified to fight your battles and the battles of this district, vote for him. If, on the other hand, you believe my record shows that I am better qualified, vote for me, and I will not betray your confidence.

During the National Campaign it was my privilege to study the particular needs of each one of the 23 counties in this district from Brackettville to Brownsville. I am glad to have the opportunity of studying the problems of the people in each of these counties during the present campaign. My business has given me an insight into those problems during the past twenty years. I believe that a man's judgment is never better than his information. I will always try to get all of the pertinent facts before I make a decision. I will always welcome advice from men who have special knowledge or experience on any subject.

Another problem of paramount importance concerns the farmers of the nation. The buying power of the farmer must be brought back. Prices of farm products must be restored to an equality with other prices, and the agricultural industry saved from bankruptcy. Thousands of men and women in our own district, engaged in the basic industry of agriculture on which in the final analysis all else depends, are on the verge of losing their homes and their opportunity to make a living. The Democratic Party has pledged itself to find the solution of this problem, and is now working on a definite program of relief. I hope to have the opportu-ity to help, with the personal experience I have had in farming.

I have been a farmer in this district since 1913. I have grubbed out mesquite trees, brush and cactus to put land into cultivation. I have tried out various crops and on various occasions have lost my crop on account of drouths, of floods, of insect pests. I have had prices so low and taxes so high, as is the case now, that the ownership of land has become an actual liability.

Realizing the absolute necessity of farmers living at home under these distressing conditions, I have done everything in my power to promote the home packing of fruits and vegetables. I arranged to have the County's part of the salary of Mrs. Etta Ringgold, Home Demonstration Agent, paid for an entire year in order to get this work started in Live Oak County, when the County could not pay her and her work has been of inestimable value to many families in this territory.

The facilities of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation should be made available immediately to borrowers from the Federal Farm Loan System who are about to lose their farms by foreclosure. Where loans were conservatively made in the first place, and through no fault of their own, the land owners are not able during this emergency to meet maturing installments, loans should be made to take up all delinquent payments and all delinquent taxes. These new loans should mature, not in six months as stipulated by the late lamented Republican regime, but in a long enough time, preferably in amortization installments after the old loan is paid off, so that the star of hope can again shine for these borrowers.

The interest rate should be as low as for the previously favored classes in the East. The battle for low interest rates on land loans in South Texas is not a new one for me. I had the privilege of participating actively in this fight before the World War when the last Democratic Administration established the Federal Farm Loan System, and after the War when the old loan companies who had been getting rich on high interest rates and commissions, made a determined fight on this system (Continued on opposite page)

CHARLES R. TIPS OF THREE RIVERS, TEXAS

FARMERS ENDORSE TIPS FOR CONGRESS.

We, the undersigned farmers of Live Oak County, are glad to endorse for election to Congress our neighbor, Chas. R. Tips, whose intense interest in South Texas agriculture and in the welfare of those engaged in farming should be known to all.

His first investment as a young man, 20 years old, just graduated from the University of Texas, was to buy, largely on credit, a tract of Mesquite land in Live Oak County. He had this land grubbed out and put into cultivation and has been engaged in farming in this vicinity during the 20 years since that time.

He has suffered with us through all of the handicaps and hardships that go with farming, including crop failures and losses due to drought, floods, insect pests, high taxes, and low prices, so that he knows the problems and needs of the farmers of South Texas through his own experience.

This experience includes not only dry framing production of cotton, corn and similar crops, but also irrigation farming, as he has had water rights and his own pumping plant on the River for the production of truck crops, etc., since 1914.

He has been one of the leaders in the fight against interest charges. In order to help the farmers of this territory get long time credit at 5 1/2 or 6% interest, where they had been paying 8% to 10% or more on long time loans, he helped to establish the Federal Farm Loan System in this State, organizing and serving as Secretary and Treasurer of the local National Farm Loan Association before the World War. After his discharge from the Army in 1919, he helped to start the Joint Stock Land Banks into operation. He has been a borrower under this plan for many years. He is one of the acknowledged authorities in Texas on farm financing, and through his personal experience has the borrower's viewpoint, and therefore can be expected to help in Congress to work out a satisfactory solution of the Farm Credit situation, and to help the farmers of the Nation save their farms.

He has been a member of the Co-operative Cotton Marketing Association for a number of years, and has a personal interest in and knowledge of co-operative marketing.

He has done as much as any individual in Texas to promote the packing of fruits and vegetables in glass containers, his work along this line being favorably known by Home Demonstration Agents all over Texas. In order to help the farmers and farm women and children of this County, when the County could not afford to employ a Home Demonstration Agent, he arranged through an organization he controlled to pay for an entire year the County's part of the salary of Mrs. Etta Ringgold, Home Demonstration Agent. Her work has been of inestimable value in helping many farm families to get through this depression by living at home.

We believe that a man with this personal knowledge of farm problems and with the education, experience, personal integrity and fighting spirit that we know Chas. R. Tips to possess, will make a splendid representative in Congress, and we therefore pledge him our active support and urge all farmers to vote for him as a fellow farmer and champion of the rights of agriculture.

LIKES OUR POLITICS.

Your political articles suit me better than those in any other paper.

With kindest wishes for the holidays and for your future success,

Yours very truly,

HARRY CRAMER, Sec.
Glasva Grange 393.

Those whose memory is not too short for the effort will recall that last summer, when Sterling and his hangers-on could foresee their political doom, one Moore Lynn was giving all kinds of juggled figures in a frantic effort to show that state finances under the Sterling regime were sound. Now, only a few months later and before any other hand has touched the state's fiscal affairs, he is as frantically trying to show the state's bankrupt condition in an effort, ostensibly, to pave the way for increased taxation. If Texas taxpayers are as wise as sovereign citizens should be they will lose little time in dispensing with the services of Mr. Lynn and his kind by dispensing with his job.

One of the best uses to which Federal Unemployment Relief funds could be applied would be to plant roadside trees at every available spot along our highways and in every other spot of public ground. They would serve as living warnings to future generations to avoid the folly of this one of ours in rushing into a foreign war which was none of our affair and thus escape a recurrence of such miseries as are now the aftermath of the last one.

LOCAL P. T. A. CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY OF FOUNDER.

A large number of members and a group of welcome visitors from Rio-medina, Yancey and Devine, enjoyed the annual Silver Tea Monday afternoon, Feb. 13, at the High School, in observance of the birthday of the founder of the Parent-Teacher Association.

The program, which was delightful and appropriate to the occasion, was as follows: Piano solo by Ivy Jean McCall; violin solo by Billy Merritt; two piano selections by Evelyn Knopp; vocal solo by Miss Rose Senne and a brief talk on child welfare by Mrs. O. B. Taylor.

During the business session, the book was awarded the Fourth grade with a representation of eleven mothers. The treasurer reported a balance of $12.61, and also announced the Conference of the Fifth District to be held in Gonzales on April 7th and 8th.

Mrs. T. C. Barnes gave a lucid report on the County Council meeting at Devine; Prof. W. N. Saathoff reported on the Red Cross work and Mrs. E. J. Leinweber gave in detail the meeting of the County Health Committee, with great stress laid on the immunization of pre-school children from diphtheria.

A nominating committee composed of Mrs. P. E. Lancaster, chairman, and Mesdames R. J. Reilly, R. W. Speece, L. J. Brucks, Isaac Wilson and Elmer Leinweber, was appointed for the approaching nomination and election of new officers.

Prof. Barry asked the support of the ladies in taking care of the entrants in the Basketball Tournament on Friday night, Feb. 24th.

As a means of securing funds, plans for a style show were discussed.

During the social hour, a lovely ceremony was observed in the lighting of the thirty-five birthday candles, in honor of the occasion, at the same time Miss Pearl Fawcett giving a reading on the wonderful work of the founders. Mrs. Roland Gaines, president, extinguished the candles. A large birthday cake, iced in lavender and gold, and embossed with a frosted pansy and centered with a large gold candle, adorned the tea table.

Mrs. Alfred Schweers and her committee served Neopolitan salad in lavender and gold, with whipped cream and birthday cake.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

If you need the services of one who should treat your eyes, you seek out an eye specialist, who understands this line of service. If you are in need of nose or throat treatment, you go to one who understands this part of the human body. And so on. You also have a right to see their diplomas or membership certificates, indicating that they are duly trained and authorized.

If you want spiritual care, do not go to any "quack" religious leader. Go to the specialist. Go to the one properly called by the Lord through His Church. He is there to serve your soul in an understanding manner. You can demand to see his diplomas and his credentials which show that he has been properly trained and fully called to his task. Do not delay, your soul needs attention, and regard such called leaders as "the ministers of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God."

DEPLORABLE TRAGEDY.

Death rode the Highway Tuesday evening and about 6:30 snuffed the life of Jesus G. Lopez, Mexican of about 66 years. He was crossing the highway in the west part of town when a car, driven by E. C. Roberts, a bridge contractor of Yoakum, who was traveling east, approached him. Some part of the passing car caught the unfortunate man's clothing and jerked him several feet. Mr. Roberts rushed to the hospital with the victim, but an examination disclosed that his neck was broken and death had been instantaneous.

The unfortunate man was buried Wednesday under auspices of the Catholic church.

W. M. S. MEETS.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Baptist church met at the church Thursday at 3 P. M. in the regular business meeting. An assembly of Southern States governors recently resolved, with the best intentions in the world no doubt, in favor of compulsory reduction of cotton acreage by 50% during 1933. It is passing strange that men schooled in the democracy of Jefferson could seriously consider such a bolshevistic proposal or that the yeomanry of the South does not scourge them into political oblivion. But aside from the enormity of the proposal, common honesty should impel the proponents of such a measure to a realization that the state has no moral right to prescribe the use a farmer shall make of his fields without compensating him for any losses he may sustain by complying with such regulations. With the price of all farm commodities equally depressed along with the price of cotton any considerable change from cotton to other crops can have no other possible effect than aggravating the ills of agriculture. Common sense should teach them that the acreage proper to give to any particular crop is a problem peculiar to each individual farm among the millions in the cotton belt. Relief does not lie along the route of compulsory acreage control; it lies in taking the reins off and giving the cotton farmer an equal break along with men in the other industrial and commercial enterprises of the world.

An attractive way to decorate tall glasses in which cold beverages are to be served, is to dip the rim first in a saucer of lemon juice and then in a saucer of sugar. As the sugar hardens it forms a decorative crystal ring. Also, as the beverage is quaffed from the glass, the ring gives it an unusual and piquant flavor.

Whereas, it has pleased the Creator of the Universe to remove from our midst on January 17th, 1933, our late friend and fraternal brother, H. S. Kirby; and whereas, it is but just that a fitting recognition of his many virtues should be had; therefore be it resolved by the Hondo City Lodge No. 756, A. F. & A. Resolved, that we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased and that the heartfelt sympathy of this lodge be extended to them in their bereavement.
